TRUSTEE'S REPORT.

The library has been open for the exchange of books four evenings and one afternoon each week during the year, except as the town officers have occasionally required the room for special meetings. Extended opportunities have been followed by increased patronage, and quite a development of interest in the reading room has been manifest. The papers and magazines upon the table have been essentially as in previous years. The choicest have been there, but the list should be enlarged by voluntary contribution or more generous appropriation. The example of Dr. Munsey in continuing his annual gift, as an expression of permanent interest in the literary improvement of his Greenville friends after his removal elsewhere, should be a stimulus to those who still remain to contribute in every possible way to this most important means of public education.

Ninety new books have been added to the library by purchase, and one, a gift from Mrs. Henry I. Whitney.

Careful examination of the volumes in previous use has found fifty-two so badly broken that their further issue seemed unsafe, and they have been put into the hands of the binders for repairs.

Besides the grand old English classics and the latest works of our living masters in literary art, a free public library is constantly enriched with many gratuitous contributions from various sources, including the state and national government. These may lack popular attractions, yet often prove of great value for reference. Then, there ought to be shelves for the accumulation of the antique and everything of local interest, which thoughtful friends should be on the alert to supply. Indeed a library is in many senses a vital organism. While it ministers to the intellectual life of so many patrons it should be a living thing itself, growing rapidly and broadly; and for this it must have room.

REPORT OF THE
SCHOOL • BOARD
—OF—
GREENVILLE, N. H.

REPORT.

The School Board submit the following report:

During the past year our schools have done very satisfactory work, due largely to the board being able to retain to a large extent the same teachers. The greatest evil connected with our schools is the non-attendance of pupils. Parents should encourage a prompt and constant attendance of their children at school.

The east school has enrolled the largest number of scholars it has had for a number of years, and shows the largest percentage of attendance of any school in town. This school has been in session 26 weeks, the town of Mason paying half the expense as in previous years.

The south school has been in session two terms. During the last term there were but three pupils enrolled. The board decided not to open this school during the winter, as there were but one or two scholars to attend. We therefore thought best to pay transportation expenses to the village school the same as last year.

The village schools have been in session the full 36 weeks, with the exception of the primary department, which has lost nine days' schooling on account of the illness of the teacher. In the matter of attendance there is much room for improvement in these schools.

The board thought best to make a change in the reading books and after a careful examination decided to introduce the New Franklin Reader. This reader has given good satisfaction. It gives us pleasure to notice the interest shown by the parents in visiting the schools. This certainly is a duty and should be a pleasure. Below will be found the names of those who have been perfect in attendance during the past year.

ROLL OF HONOR.

For one term: Mary Adams, Alice Batchelder, Lulu Cochran, Tracy A. Eaton, Orrin W. Eaton, Gene Sanborn, Edward Batchelder, George W. Doanan, Libbie A. Hastings, Alphonse Binette, John McCuddy, Percy Price, Eugene Ricard, Edward R. Hogan, Delia Bourgault, Napoleon Greenwood, Emma S. Ames, Robert J. Douglass, Irving E. Hodgman, Fred F. Reed, Edith Douglass, Eugene Greenwood, Benjamin Greene.

For two terms: Mary Batchelder, Herbert J. Doanan, Merton Sanborn, Ethel Eva Pierce, Marion Kingsbury, Edwin Douglass, Bertha Greene.

For the year: Charles E. Douglass.
